A BANNER YEAR FOR SHAWNEE SPORTS

SUBMITTED BY KERRY BROWN | PHOTOS PROVIDED BY SHAWNEE HIGH SCHOOL

Through every season, Shawnee student-athletes brought pride, passion, and perseverance to the field, court, mat, and more. With a full year of standout performances, record-breaking wins, and moments of heart, here's a month-by-month look back at the stories we celebrated in Medford Living.

SEPTEMBER spotlighted Boys' Lacrosse All-Americans Tommy McAneney and Tyler Rotkowitz, whose national recognition set the tone for a strong year ahead.

In OCTOBER, we featured a moving moment from the football season as Kells Urban was named honorary captain, showing how Shawnee's teams rally around one another beyond the scoreboard.

NOVEMBER brought a landmark victory for the Girls Tennis Team under Coach Sarah Doyle, as we celebrated their achievement as Shawnee's first-ever NJSIAA State Tennis Champions—a historic first for the program.

Shawnee athletes gave us plenty to cheer for this year—and we can't wait to see what's next.

In DECEMBER, we honored Mya Groves and her impressive run to the State Finals in gymnastics, as well as the school-wide impact of the Dig Pink & Teal event, where athletics met advocacy.

JANUARY'S feature captured the excitement of dual titles, as both the Girls' and Boys' Soccer Teams were recognized as champions, showcasing Shawnee's depth across sports.

By FEBRUARY, the focus turned to future potential, with standout athletes John Prokopus and Mason Grabowski announcing their commitments to Yale and Cornell, respectively—proof that Renegade excellence continues beyond high school.

In MARCH, our attention turned to Shawnee's commitment to inclusion and community with a spotlight on the Unified Basketball Team, where athletes of all abilities played with heart and teamwork.

APRIL'S coverage highlighted a season of hard-earned growth for the Shawnee Wrestling team, where grit and resilience were on full display.

In MAY, we celebrated individual recognition with Jake Jones earning First Team All-Olympic honors and Jaden Butler receiving All-Conference accolades, rounding out a spring season of standout performances.

And finally, in JUNE, we came full circle with a story of lifelong teammates, Tommy McAneney and Brett Lundberg, who have played lacrosse together since they were five years old, both committed to Duke, capping off their careers at Shawnee with a shared dream realized.

From state titles to national honors, from first-time achievements to unforgettable team moments, Shawnee athletes gave us plenty to cheer for this year—and we can't wait to see what's next.
